

Takida, Another Day

Another day, another try
Another moment, another cry
Thorn in my side, it's just keep on being loud
Hey now, we're fallin out of line
It's hollow, cold and nothing new
We just wanna get us through another day
The feeling stays the same

Another downfall, another time
Another reject, another life
A glimpse from hell, taste the evil, taste the smell

Another mission, the search for light
Another failure to make it right
Oh lonely times, fall in fall out

It's getting closer, a touch is getting closer
It's getting closer now, a touch is getting closer

Break the silence darling, before I go now
