

Takida, Asleep

I saw the other side in your eyes
You bury me alive with your lies
The flame inside of me burning still
I wanna see you bleed I know I will

All over me

Don't wanna fall asleep at night
My pain is yours to keep inside
My only enemy is my friend
The world is coming down on you again

All over you

If I fall asleep I'll never wake up
I don't wanna sleep I'll never wake up

All over me, all over you, all over me
All over you, all over me, all over you
