Takida, Breathe

Love was calling me; I could feel it inside of my head
Never held you close, all I want is for you to be real

Can you feel this pain?
Break this silence between us

Breathe in, breathe out
Can you feel I'm in the air you breathe inside of you, so cold

Let me come inside, I can stay with you if you want
No one else I need, All I want is for this to be real
