

Takida, D.H.C

Taking my life Step on my Pride

I'm dying, trying to figure it out the reason for me to give Sometimes I'm closer to the answer than this and I can't stand not knowing it

Answer all my questions now
I can't stand another lie

I'm dying, just trying to figure it out just what the hell I'm doing here
Your leeches are crawling right under my skin
The end for me is not with you

Taking my life Ruin my soul Step on my Pride Taking my time Tear out my heart Killing my mind

Why can't I hide from you? You're pulling me down Poisoned eyes, you got them to I think it's your Dirty Hollow Crown
