

Takida, Old

Are you colder now,
are you colder than the wather?
Is your heart alive?
your heart is so much older..

You can't go back; soon your heart will be on attack, oh life

You're helpless now, you can do nothing at all
You wanna change,
yeah you want to remember it all It's darker now and,
you think you're all alone..

Let go we'll see you again, oh no,
I'm still your friend,
This time you are through,
you have been to the end..

Are we seeking life,
are we makers of pain?
I can hear you cry,
are you feeling the same?
I can see it now,
are you leaving today?
Don't think of tomorrow,
don't think of today..
