

Taking Back Sunday, Blue Channel

and i'm not so sure
if i'm sure of anything, anymore so this is the last night that you'll be keeping secrets from me hit the lights before you leave, you know of the million things you had to say sorry just just might have found its way in there somehow, someway but dont worry sweetie cause i already know

if i'm sure of anything, anymore
and this is the last night (this is the last night)

you're so guilty it's desgusting he's been sneaking underneath your sheets your hands in places that they probably shouldnt go

regardless, my pictures well they dont line your mirror regardless you know that (i'll still wait for your call)
