

Taking Back Sunday, Capital M-e

The nicest man i ever met was more malicious than malcontent yeah he taught me how to hold my tongue and wait to strike til their backs were turned and you slither away like the snake that you are yeah you slither away like the snake that you are All i ever did was look up to you if all i ever did was let, let you down ain't nothin stopping me now Divinity spell correctly beneath the receding pride of his twenties was capital M-E(I could've subscribed) Was capital M-E(But you cant say i didn't try) You say what you want(maybe i didn't get my way) so you say what you want(maybe i didn't get my way)
All i ever did was look up to you
ain't nothin stopping me now Was it everything you hoped for?
was it all of that and more?
too much to, soon up to could you be true, was it everything you hoped for?
was it all of that and more?
All i ever did was look up to you
