

Talis Kimberley, Rapunzel

I take a pretty dim view of it all
It was gonna be the next big thing -
Who said 'see how they run when it falls'?
Well it ain't over till the fat man sings
And he's too drunk on his own sweet wine to care
I've bribed him with a crate of something red -
Watch me, I'm sliding down Rapunzel's hair
The way Rapunzel said:

Sweet lords of light - Rapunzel sends her best regards
Sweet Lady bright - guess you've only my word for that
Sweet lords of light - Rapunzel knows you mark the cards
Sweet Lady bright - guess you've only my word for that

Don't look now but there's something afoot
Off and running down the road like a thing gone mad
We're getting away from the point
I'm not having any more of this.
Change was never a demon in my eyes
I've never judged a monster by its name
And the oracle's away and her locum lies
Well isn't that the game?

Sweet lords of light - Rapunzel sends her best regards
Sweet Lady bright - guess you've only my word for that
Sweet lords of light - Rapunzel knows you mark the cards
Sweet Lady bright - guess you've only my word for that

This time I got a clue and a half
Don't you reckon it's about damn time I did?
I see better now in the dark
And I'm looking where I put my feet, so
Heads up, there's a balloon, my mind's made up
I want to grab a piece of this big sky
My ghosts are getting keen to have their day
Let's see if this one flies -

Sweet lords of light - Rapunzel sends her best regards
Sweet Lady bright - guess you've only my word for that
Sweet lords of light - Rapunzel knows you mark the cards
Sweet Lady bright - guess you've only my word for that
