

Talis Kimberley, Taken By Storm

Missed you - only gone a day - and a
Night as well; sleeping a-
Lone, wishing you were here, hold the very Mem'ry of you to my Self - counting down the hours, thinking of your Arms round me clasping me
Close - like a lover, like a lover, being taken by

Storm - you'll
// Know it when the rain falls
// From a clear sky
Pieces of me, jumbled
Up, shaken down, in a
Box made of something like
Starlight /// taken by
Storm - you'll
// Know it when the rain falls
And you see what's beyond, no
Words, no words, am I
Blind? Am I sane? Am I
You? Am I slivers of
Moonlight?

Sometimes when it's happening
's'like I'm seeing things - coloured lights in my Head - do you ever see that, 'cos it's Different for you every
Time, time does funny things, I'm a
Little crazed now, out of my Mind, what you do what you do to me taken by -

Storm - you'll
// Know it when the rain falls
// From a clear sky
Pieces of me, jumbled
Up, shaken down, in a
Box made of something like
Starlight /// taken by
Storm - you'll
// Know it when the rain falls
And you see what's beyond, no
Words, no words, am I
Blind? Am I sane? Am I
You? Am I slivers of
Moonlight?
