

Talisman, Pavilion Of Oblivion

Feelin down feelin empty like u don't have a friend the world & their brothers are bangin' down your door nothin soothes nothin satisfies u might as well be alone try though u may 2 run u still end up on the floor in your search 4 mere happiness u can't dwell on what's gone is past

(Chorus:)

don't let 'em get u down don't let 'em spin u 'round in the pavilion of oblivion like a bird with a broken wing feel you're fallin again needin more than a saviour 2 rescue your soul

thru the rearview mirror objects are closer than they seem but the road ahead can be endless when you're all alone as you're runnin'
don't stop 2 cry
don't feed on their severed lies

(Chorus)

don't apologize 4 your alibis
in the pavilion of oblivion
