

Talk Show, Wash Me Down

(D. Coutts)

Once I was a fine man
Until I met the woman
And then she washed me down
And once I was a dry man
Till they took me to a wedding
You know they washed me down

You can wash me
You can wash me down

Heaven has no windows
'Cause heaven has no walls
Because they wash 'em down
The wind blows me in the corner
And it pulls me down the hill
You know it pulls me down down
You know it throws me down

You can wash me
You can wash me down
