Talk Show, Wash Me Down

(D. Coutts)

Once I was a fine man Until I met the woman And then she washed me down And once I was a dry man Till they took me to a wedding You know they washed me down

You can wash me You can wash me down

Heaven has no windows 'Cause heaven has no walls Because they wash 'em down The wind blows me in the corner And it pulls me down the hill You know it pulls me down down You know it throws me down

You can wash me You can wash me down
