

Tam Tam Go, I Come For You

It&#039;s cold and it&#039;s raining cats and dogs in this very new town
I&#039;m lost I&#039;m a beginner in the city
But soon I&#039;ll get through &#039;cause a man like me is a hard boine to deal with just you wait and see &#039;cause a man like me ain&#039;t ban honey though you hate, my hat brim

I come for you now

I know I do the right thing Really trust what I mean &#039;Cause my life has been walkabout as a merry go round since I kissed you I&#039;d been hung on you like a narrow tie and you see baby when you loosen me
I don&#039;t feel right

I come for you now
Look out!

It&#039;s cold and it&#039;s raining cats and dogs
In this gloomy old town
I&#039;m lost it&#039;s dark in the city
I&#039;m lost it&#039;s dark in my soul
But I&#039;ve got a light house Shinning me shinning you
And the brim of my hat
And best of my heart are saying I miss you