

Tamar Braxton, Angels & Demons

Can't see she
It's been waiting too long
I'm still leaving
Catch me boy I'm falling in love
Now that my heart is binding
I wanna give my all away
But I'm always reminded
Of all villains in the way
Cause love ain't loving
You know that it'd shoot you down
Baby tell what are we

Is it up
Is it down
Cause I'm standing
Two minutes ago
Is it love
Cause our love has angels and demons
Ohhh
Please don't run away with my love
My love
Please don't run away with my love
My love

Can't you see
You love's bringing me down
I'm still singing
Not about to let this drown
Now that my heart is binding
I wanna give it all away
But I'm always reminded
Of all villains in the way
Cause love ain't loving
You know that it'd shoot you down
Baby tell what are we

Is it up
Is it down
Cause I'm standing
Two minutes ago
Is it love
Cause our love has angels and demons
Please don't run away with my love
My love
Please don't run away with my love
My love

We're painters
We're sinners
We're losers
We're winners
We're love
We're in it
Beginner, the injures
The in back
Your love
I said
We're painters
We're sinners
We're losers
We're love
We're in it

The in back
Your love

Cause love ain't loving
You know that it'd shoot you down

Is it up
Is it down
Cause I'm standing
Two minutes ago
Is it love
Cause our love has angels and demons
Please don't run away with my love
My love
Please don't run away with my love
My love
