

Tamar Braxton, If I Don't Have You

Sitting in the dark
Off in my room
Thinking of you
I'm at the brink of me breaking' down
Cause all these thoughts of me and you apart
Won't leave my head right now
Baby, baby call me crazy
Cause I know without I won't be no good
When the latch on my heart comes to you

You should know
If I don't have you
Rocks me to the core
I can't love no more
If I don't have you
Know I'm done for sure
Nobody work fighting for
I'm tired of these walls
That's on my life
I'll lose my mind if I don't have you

Looking in the phone
When you don't even call
I put it in the draw
Cause I wanna be right next to you
If you wanna talk
Baby come on through
Before it's all done
Tell me I'm your only one

Baby, baby call me crazy
Cause I know without I won't be no good
When the latch on my heart comes to you

You should know
If I don't have you
Rocks me to the core
I can't love no more
If I don't have you
Know I'm done for sure
Nobody work fighting for
I'm tired of these walls
That's on my life
I'll lose my mind if I don't have you

If I don't have you

So wait till it starts things over
Can't seem to get it together
We're trying, we try
But we won't look wrong
Dead end, their eyes
Show me right
Cause I don't wanna fight
Consider myself without in my mind
Please don't say you're done with me
Cause you're my baby
Baby

You should know
If I don't have you
Rocks me to the core
I can't love no more
If I don't have you

Know I'm done for sure
Nobody work fighting for
I'm tired of these walls
That's on my life
I'll lose my mind if I don't have you

If I don't have you
Rocks me to the core
I can't love no more
If I don't have you
Know I'm done for sure
Nobody work fighting for
I'm tired of these walls
That's on my life
I'll lose my mind if I don't have you
