

Tamia, Happy/Every Part Of Me (Interlude)

what happened to the roses and the little phone calls we made throughout the day and the silly little games we played but somehow things have changed how i miss the old got my feelings thrown we're barely holdingg on

chorus
why can we
you and me
be happy
(why can't we just be so happy)
why can't we just chill and be happy (why can't we just be so happy)

the Arguing seems to win over loving used to be hugging kissing and rubbing now everyday is something new separating me and you i thought that we could get through anything

chorus
why can we
(why can't we just be so happy)
why can't we just chill and be happy

baby lets start over again, and get back to being friends, and lets try harder this time whoa baby tell me

chorus (2x)
why can we
(why can't we just be so happy)
(why can't we just be so happy)
