

Tamia, Sittin' On The Job

sittin here on the job, and hopin that you would call me my eyes, my eyes are tired from us sittin up and just talking, all night my supervisor noticed im kind of slow for today my girlfriends also noticed im joyful what can i say it only been 2 months but im prayin that your the one please baby be the one
please baby be

keep replaying your kisses can't get them out of my mind i try my work is piling up and who'd guess that i'd get behind but thats fine its only 12:07
i take my first break at 2 it seems i have a message

no, no, no, no
no, no, no, no,
no, no, no, no
no- no

its 2:15 im smiling i hear your voice on the phone oh my,
tell me you wanna see me can't wait until i get home, tonight my mind says slow it down girl this thing right here is so new but my heart says keep it movin two thoughts but im not confused
