

Tammin Sursok, Something Better

Here I am a little nervous thinking
Where do I begin
Can't seem to find the words today
Never got a chance to tell you
Guess I couldn't bear to say
There would be a time that I'd be on my way

Looking back
It's seems to me
I always knew
I left a little piece of me with you

All I know is,
We go in and out of love
We don't know what we want
Holding out for something better
Through every twist and turn
We live but we don't learn
All we want is something better

Starry night I'm driving late
Wishing I was somewhere
City lights are fading as I go

Colours change and all I have with me
Is an empty space
Funny how you miss what you don't know

Looking back
It seems that we were always free
But there's a little bit of you with me

All I know is
We go in and out of love
We don't know what we want
Holding out for something better
Through every twist and turn
We live but we don't learn
All we want is something better

Only know what you've got 'til its gone
Why's it always taking so long
Get used to holding
Used to holding on
All I know?
