Tammy Cochran, I'm Gettin' There

I put on my shades and walk out the door today the sun shine birds sing yes im alive again

Chorus

I'm feeling fearless i'm growin' stronger not lettin' your memory linger any longer i'm just a step away from gettin' over you I swear i'm gettin' there

Time slipped right by too many tears i've cried wasted, depressed glad i got that off my chest, now

Repeat Chorus

Took a small step took a deep breath told myself theres more to life not less didn't give up didn't give in this is where the heartache finally ends

Repeat Chorus 2X
