

Tammy Trent, Light Of Love

Light of love, shine on me
I'm waiting for the break of day
Here I am, how I long
To feel the sun upon my face
I'll let the sweet light surround me
Falling down from above, I am found in Your love

I know that heaven's light can make its way to a heart
A ray of hope can make the day of the dark
It's so hard to believe
It's too good to be true
But I'm seeing in me
A reflection of You
Light of love

Light of love, here's my heart
I'm tired of trying to wrestle free
I'll reach up for the love
That's coming down to cover me
I've started seeing things clearer
If the mirror is true, Lord, I'm nearer to You

One thing is certain, one thing is sure
This old world is darker than night
And colder than winter
And they're never ever gonna see You
If You're not in me

I know that Heaven's light can make its way to a heart
A ray of hope can make the day of the dark
It's so hard to believe
It's too good to be true
Are they seeing in me
A reflection of You
Are they feeling love
Do they know that You care
Will You shine in my life
So the world sees You there
Light of love
Light of love
