

Tammy Wynette, Buy Me A Daddy

I buy toys for my little girl almost every day
To try and keep her happy since her daddy went away
But today she looked so lonely as she climbed upon my knees
And in her sweet tiny voice she said this to me
Mommy I love you and all of my toys but I want a daddy like the other girls and boys
Then she gave me her pennies her nickels and dimes
And the next thing she told me broke this heart of mine
Buy me a daddy he don't have to be new just as long as he loves me any daddy will do
And we'll make him promise daddy won't go away
Please buy me a daddy let's go get one today
Buy me a daddy let's go get one today
