

Tammy Wynette, If You Think I Love You Now (I've

It's nothing new for a woman to love her man
Yes I know familiar story I know you'll understand
And I've been loving you a long long time
So I'll make you a promise I won't change my mind
And you'll never be alone never broken hearted
If you think I love you now I've just started

Too many times people break each other's heart
By making vows that so quickly fall apart
So as long as you want me by your side
I'll be your woman your lover and I'll keep you satisfied
And you'll never be alone...
If you think I love you now I've just started
