

Tammy Wynette, Let's Build A World Together

(G. Richey, C. Taylor, N. Wilson)

You say that you want me

Yes, I really want you

Well, how much do you want me?

Well, I want you as much as a child wants it's mother

Oh, that's how much I want you

And you say that you need me

Yes, I really need you

Well, how much do you need me?

I'll tell you how much can a man need a woman?

Well, that's how much I need you

Then what will you give me?

What will I give you?

Yes, what will you give me?

A garden of love that will live on forever

Oh, that's what I will give you

Then let's build a world together

One world, safe, together

And no matter what happens

I'll love you forever

And I'll give you love

And I'll give you love

Yes, I'll give you all of my love.
