

Tammy Wynette, Talkin to Myself Again

good mornin darlin can i bring you some coffee in bed did you sleep well we got a full day ahead i love you too dear
i love you too

talkin to myself again
ever since he left that's how it's been goin crazy playin just pretend that everything is still ok
without his lovin i am at loose ends if i'm not careful they will have to send somebody to lock me away good night honey sure had a beautiful day ain't we lucky to have each other this way i'm so happy too dear so happy too

if i'm not careful they will have to send someone to lock me away
