

Tanita Tikaram, Amore Si

It was a lonely summer
Where I have been your shelter
Following your footsteps
Will you be my first regret?

Sorry if I'm foolish
Making myself secrets
Seems to come between us
And we always leave them there,
My child always leave them there...

Who will love you?
Do you break my heart?
Do I have to go?
Does it mean we've loved somebody?
Now you're falling
Do we have to cheat?
Do we have to lie?
Does it mean I've loved somebody?
Who will hold you?
Do we learn to cry?
Do we have to hate?
Does it mean we've loved somebody?

Waiting in the cold like this
Always feeling nervous
Hiding in the shadows
I'm sure I can't get caught you know

I can't keep together
Any of my thoughts
How they feel
But I just came round to talk, you know
Always here to talk...

Who will need me?
Do you break my heart?
Do I have to go?
Does it mean we've loved somebody?
Now I'm losing
Do we have to cheat?
Do we have to lie?
Does it mean I've loved somebody?
Who will hold me?
Do we learn to cry?
Do we have to hate?
Does it mean we've loved somebody?
Now I'm fighting amore si
Does it mean I'm real?
Does it make me sane?

Who will need me?
Do you break my heart?
Do I have to go?
Does it mean we've loved somebody?
Now I'm losing
Do we have to cheat?
Do we have to lie?
Does it mean I've loved somebody?
Who will hold me?
Do we learn to cry?
Do we have to hate?
Does it mean we've loved somebody?
Now I'm fighting amore si

Does it mean I'm real?
Does it make me sane?
