

Tanita Tikaram, My Love

My love
it's just not the same no more the game before was real to me

My love
you talk of so many things I'll never seen
I guess I've seen it all

Who knows how I could fall so far all I know is your love
is tearing in my heart

always not the same no more I felt before you were real to me

My love
I lived in so many dreams though never seen
I guess you seen it all

Who knows how you could stray so far
all I know is your love
is tearing in my heart

Who knows
how I could so far
all I know is your love
is tearing in my heart
