

Tankard, Chains (In Your Face)

Danger! Danger! They kill without fear
Without a warning you'll die tonight
Hunting and killing and raping again,
their only aim to take your life
Die, die! Brutal gangs of death
Innocent victims they like to kill
Fear, fear! We know their cruelty
Hope never to meet them

Death - is real tonight
Chains - you have no chance
Death - is real tonight
Blood - is what they need
Chains, chains (In your face)

Fight, fight! Answer their aggressions
Take the weapons and defend yourself
Hunting and killing and raping again,
their only aim to take your life
Kill, kill! The time has come Hope, hope! We dance on their graves
Now they've payed for their brutal murders
