

Tantric, Falling Away

How did we let this bleep get complicated
When all of this time we knew that we were wasting

Why do I feel like I always fall through
Sometimes I feel like I just want to be you
Now that I know that it's harder to be true
I realize that I have to believe you

And it's so hard to see
But it's never enough, never enough
Anyway

How can I start the day without a destiny
How can I live again, you got the best of me
And I've tried just to feel it from another state
And it keeps on falling and falling away

How did we let our lives get over jaded
We're not the ones who asked to stay belated

Why do I feel like I always fall through
Sometimes I feel like I just want to be you
Now that I know that it's harder to be true
I realize that I have to believe you

And it's so hard to see
But it's never enough, never enough
Anyway

How can I start the day without a destiny
How can I live again, you got the best of me
And I've tried just to feel it from another state
And it keeps on falling and falling

How can I start the day without a destiny
How can I live again, you got the best of me
And I've tried just to feel it from another state
And it keeps on falling and falling away

And it's hard to see
When it's something you don't believe
Cuz I've tried everything
But it's never enough, never enough
Anyway
How can I start the day without a destiny
How can I live again, you got the best of me
And I've tried just to feel it from another state
And it keeps on falling and falling

How can I start the day without a destiny
How can I live again, you got the best of me
And I've tried just to feel it from another state
And it keeps on falling and falling away
