

Tanya Donnelly, Bury My Heart

(Bright Light EP Part 1)

Bury my heart separately
It's something that don't belong to me

Like Mary did Percy's
Now do this for me

Bury my heart separately

He was a bleeder by '78
Letter to Carter
Squared by the straight
I was the lucky one

I bloom late
I bloom late

He was a blackheart in '78
He was in danger and quarter and great
I followed everywhere

On my own
On my own

Bury my heart separately
It's something that don't belong to me

Like Mary did Percy's
Now do this for me

Bury my heart separately

In the blizzard of '78
You could fall out of our window
And skate all the way to the creamery

It was bitter
It was great

Bury my heart separately
It's something that don't belong to me

Like Mary did Percy's
Do this for me

Bury my heart separately

Bury my heart separately
It's something that don't belong to me

Like Mary did Percy's
Will you do this for me?

Bury my heart separately
(yeah yeah)

Bury my heart separately
Bury my heart separately
It's something that don't belong to me

Bury my heart separately
Bury my heart separately
Bury my heart separately

(yeah yeah)
Bury my heart...
