

Tanya Tucker, Changes

Neither one of us will ever change,
We're both the same, and that's a shame,
'Cause when we were together it was right,
We had it all, you and I,
Your not changin' me, and I'm not changin' you,
The only change is what we're goin' through,
You took the part of me, that I was proudest of,
Now your sayin' that's the part that you can't love

(Chorus)
Changes,
I'm gonna have to make some Changes,
Now that I know what your game is,
I know that I would only lose,
No matter what I do,
And the first change that I make'
Is gonna be you..

If love and what we had ain't what you want,
What do you need? You don't need me,
You said I was the answer to your prayers,
It don't seem fair, we both still care,

(chorus)

Oh, someday, I'll get over you,
Can't you see we're through,
Oh, somehow I'll get over you, somehow,
Ohh, changes.....
