

Tanya Tucker, I'm Not Lisa

I'm not Lisa, my name is Tanya
Lisa left you year's ago
My eyes are not blue
But mine won't leave you
Til the sun light has touched your face

She was your morning light
Her smile told of no night
Your love for her grew
With each risin' sun

And then one winter day
His hand lead her's away
She left you here
Drownin' in your tears here
Where you stayed for years, crying Lisa

My eyes are not blue
But mine won't leave you
Til the sun light
Shines through your face
