

Tanya Tucker, One Love At A Time

It makes me weak and in a hurry
All night long I lay and I worry
I'm so afraid I'm gonna talk in my sleep
Who do I love
Who am I using
Which one is which can get so confusing
I've got to chose one and set the other one free
One love at a time thats all I can handle
Burning both ends of the candle can drive you insane
With one love in your heart
and one love on your mind
It can tear a girl apart
I just need one love at a time
Ones got a birthday
Its in December
Which ones in July
I can't remember
I get em mixed up
What am I gonna do
It keeps me uptight
driving me crazy
They're both believing
They're both my baby
Sometimes I wonder
Whos been playing with who
One love at a time thats all I can handle
Burning both ends of the candle can drive you insane
With one love in your heart
and one love on your mind
It can tear a girl apart
I just need one love at a time
Yes it can tear this girl apart
I just need one love at a time
