

Tanya Tucker, Tennessee Woman

Lay me down on porch at midnight get me high on the southern moonlight
Walk me down by the river star bright hold me my friend I'm home again
I'm a Tennessee woman who's been away from home
I know I don't belong in that city world
Old Smoky Mountains do you remember me I'm from Tennessee I'm just a local girl [piano]
Make my bed where the sun can wake me from my dreams of childhood take me
Where the winds of time can't shake me help me unload this weight of the road
I'm a Tennessee woman...
I'm a Tennessee woman...
