

Tanya Tucker, Wishin' It All Away

She don't want for nothin'
'Cause he buys her everything
But the one thing he don't give her
IS the love that she needs
She cries on pillows made of lace
Dreamin' of some other place
She's got a half a mind to run from
But she knows she'd be back again
She's got everything that a girl could want
But she needs more and she can't stop
Wishin' it all away
Wishin' it all away
Wishin' it all away
Looking out the window
There goes another falling star
Those diamonds on her fingers
Don't do nothing for her heart
She thought that there'd be so much more
Is this what she settled for
She's got a half a mind to run from
But she knows she'd be back again
She's got everything that a girl could want
But she needs more and she can't stop
Wishin' it all away
Wishin' it all away
Wishin' it all away
If she didn't have to go through leavin'
If it could all just disappear
Then she could start all over and be out of here
She's got a half a mind to run from
But she knows she'd be back again
She's got everything that a girl could want
But she needs more and she can't stop
Wishin' it all away
Wishin' it all away
Wishin' it all away
