

Tapping The Vein, Clean

I am here on this platform
And something may suck me down
If I step off this platform,
I'll be cut through clean

If I had eyes in back of me,
I shudder to think what I would see

My faith brought me no further,
Faith got me nowhere
My faith brought me no further,
Fate got me here

So, I'll jump
I'll jump, jump, jump

I am still on this platform,
Pondering my next move
It is all down to direction
I could be clean and through

If I had eyes in back of me,
I shudder to think what I would see

When better days have gone,
You fall off the merry-go-round

My faith brought me no further,
Faith got me nowhere
My faith brought me no further,
Fate got me here

So, I'll jump

My faith brought me no further,
Faith got me nowhere
My faith brought me no further,
Fate got me here

So, I'll jump
I'll jump, jump, jump

When better days have gone,
You fall off the merry-go-round
When better days have gone,
You fall off the merry-go-round
When better days have gone,
You fall off the merry-go-round
When better days have gone,
You fall off the merry-go-round
When better days have gone, I fall off
I'm falling down, so I'll jump
