

Taproot, Karmaway

Everyday now seems the same,
Only the faces change,
Every time I visualize myself,
I'm nowhere to find in hell,
Surrounded by evil from inside,
Surrounded by people that have died;
Karma take me away;
Caught in this web i'll drown tonight,
Sinking away numb to the fright,
There's nothing left I can relate,
True memories so filled with hate;
Grind my teeth and
Bite my tongue when,
I know where i'm headed,
Leave my senses,
To see offenses,
I know where i'm headed;
Take me away from all these shrouds of doubt,
And away from nothing, I can't live without
