

Tara Angell, Don't Blame Me

You let me down
You left me blue in the face
You left me reaching down
Reaching down for somebody's face
You left me strong
Big enough to pick up the world

Don't blame me
Don't blame the world
Don't cry for me
I'm not your little girl, no

I let you down
I almost died on you
If only I
Had the strength to lie to you
But now I'm alive
Big enough to pick up the world

Don't blame me
Don't blame the world
Don't cry for me
I'm not your little girl, no

Don't blame me
Don't blame the world
Don't cry for me
I'm not your little girl
