

Tara MacLean, Jericho (Old Version)

Same place I've always been crossing the roads again no more tears
my hands
calm and tired and alone we're not alone

same old dreams
lost at sea
caught in a net which startles me, guide me but they keep burning out, keep burning out turning into things they never thought they'd be

March around Jericho loved the music and fell into your arms (breathless)

Heard a sound did you hear the dance of the whisper of a storm coming

Oh, oh, funny how we spent this time waiting around Oh, oh, its a lie
everything you had till now

Saw her dancing
the slow gate-way
open this
to say her name
saw her falling
cast away
cast away
she learned to fly away

Oh, oh, funny how
we spent this time lashing out Oh, oh, its a lie
everything you had till now

Same place
always been I'm lost on these roads again just as I got near the end I keep falling in the holes you left in me

Oh, oh, funny how I've spent this time on the ground
oh, oh, its a lie
its a lie
everything you've said till now
