

Tarnation, Leave The Sad Things Behind

(Your thoughts & mine EP)

Leave the sad things behind , they're not roses or a lullabye
Let's not talk about your kind of cryin' , the cryin's all over now
It went away with last night , & now it's today so ...

I try holding your hand , I'm playing no games so you don't understand
You've been hurt , you've said all that before , the cryin's all over now
It went away with last night , & now it's today so ...

You're so fearful your heart might come to harm , you've made a prison of your past
So afraid of any love , it is destined to not last
So sad to see you cry , to see you walk away with no goodbye
