

TAT, I Don't Wanna Love You

1. Your absence doesn't make my heart grow fonder,
I won't miss you more and more yeah.

Insane infatuation drives me crazy,
Nah no one but myself can save me.

Ch. 'Cos I don't wanna love you,
I don't wanna miss you more and more and more.

2. Your absence doesn't make my heart grow fonder,
I'll just hate you more and more yeah.

This strange obsession yeah it eats me up inside,
I can't take it anymore yeah.

And what you wanna do?
And what you wanna say?

This severed blunt street only goes one way,
Tried and tested another fuck up for sure.

I can't take this anymore.

Ch. 'Cos I don't wanna love you,
And I don't wanna miss you more and more and more.

And I don't wanna love you,
And dream about you and lost my mind over you.

3. I'm like those people who'll just sit there and they stare at you blankly enough to think,
"What the fuck's been going through your mind lately."
And what you wanna do?

And what you wanna say?
Could it be heartbreak? Could it be passion?
Wouldn't know unless you ask them.

So what they're thinking is,
"Hey, I don't look like this 24/7,
give me one second I'll just go get another expression."
Reconcile my apathy with my personality,
Give me a reason not to care.

Ch. 'Cos I don't wanna love you,
And I don't wanna miss you more and more and more.
And I don't wanna love you,
I'm bored of this bullshit and I'm sick of being strung up on you.

4. You took my heart, my soul away,
And left me thinking 'bout you everyday.

You took my heart, my soul away,
And left me feeling like a fucking waste.

Ch. 'Cos I don't wanna love you,
And I don't wanna miss you more and more and more.

And I don't wanna love you,
I'm bored of this bullshit and I'm sick of being strung up on you.
