

TAT, Peace, Sex and Tea

1. Why do we see what we see?

War and bloodshed

Over our chronic beliefs and the worlds religions

How is anyone sure they're right? And does it really matter?

Its our intuition so don't ask why, just live your little life

Ch. Release the peace and let war cease

Stop the hatred

Make love have sex and go make tea

Stop the bloodshed

Fucking fanatics and your beliefs

In any religion

In contrast with modern way of life

What a combination

2. We're living in a sad, sad, sad situation

It's just another fucking problem

Without a solution

Round and round with guns we go

Till our self destruction

Every side feels justified

That they're fighting for freedom

Ch. Release the peace and let war cease

Stop the hatred

Make love have sex and go make tea

Stop the bloodshed

Peace is just a utopian dream

Never gonna happen

Shouldn't stop us from trying

Yeah, we'll keep on trying

Celebrities always claim peace

But they don't say a thing

They hide behind their primped image

Worried for their sales

Well I'm not selling anyway

What happened to the youth today?

Where's the generation that say

Long live peace and fuck hate?

3. It's just that humanity always seems

To have fucked up priorities

When mother - nature has been guillotined

What bullshit would you eat?

Balance comes with sacrifice

Of luxury not life

We're still in this position and we ask why?

- Its coz we're too damn selfish
