

Taxiride, Rocketship

Sitting in a rocket ship, perpetual motion
Takes me for a ride, I
Feeling teracoda
As I wake amongst the, moments of my life, I
Slipping into clean blue jeans I stumble
But no one hears me
Well, can you hear me

And when the morning finds the sun
You are with me now
And as the day begins to come
I'm telling you (oh) I'm still in love with you

Telepathic messages
I'm leaving on a jet plane over sky, I
Gathering my thoughts I float and gaze at magic Carried through the night, I
Your Egyptian finger hypnotize
Your solemn eyes
I could have died

And when the morning finds the sun
You are with me now
And as the day begins to come
I'm telling you (oh) I'm still in love with you
(I'm in love, in love, in love)
I'm still in love

And as the silence turns to sound
You are with me now
And as the day begins to sing
I'm telling you (oh) I'm still in love

And when the morning finds the sun
You are with me now
And as the day begins to come
I'm telling you (oh) I'm still in love with you, oh
