

Taylor Hawkins & The Coattail Riders, Wasted Energy

No-one who's gonna say good-bye
No-one in there to be surprised
No-one who's gonna ask you why
Nothing's gonna take it all away

No-one in there to tell you not to
No-one who came along to see it through
No-one who gonna throw a rope for you

When it's all just wasted energy
Ya get one ticket outta here
You don't even have to cry to see

Nothing's gonna take it all away
Nothing's gonna take it all away
For you

Shut the door and lock 'em out
Shove it right back in the face
Let 'em try and work it out

Was it all just wasted energy
Ya get one ticket outta here
Do you really hafta cry to see

Nothing's gonna take it all away
Nothing's gonna take it all away
Nothing's gonna take it all away
Nothing's gonna take it all away
For you
