

Taylor Hicks, Maybe You Should

I look around this room
And feel the pool of tender years
Before we knew enough
To be afraid of all our fears
Baby there was no corner
We couldn't fight our way out of
And every thought of leaving
Left us leaning on this love
We had it all you know
Before you started letting go
If you can walk away tonight
Give it up for good
Throw it all away like we swore we never would
If you can tear down everything we built
Deny everything we felt
I guess there's a lot I misunderstood
If you can leave here tonight
Baby maybe you should
Baby I just keep on seeing
All that moonlight shining down
The way our love could light up
This little Alabama town
So I keep holding on to hope
Still finding reasons to believe
Cause all I ever got from you
Was always just enough for me
But if it's not for you
Do what you gotta do
If you can walk away tonight
Give it up for good
Throw it all away like we swore we never would
If you can tear down everything we built
Deny everything we felt
I guess there is a lot I misunderstood
If you can leave here tonight
Baby maybe you should
If you can leave here tonight
Baby maybe you should
