

Taylor Hicks, The Runaround

It's a whole new education
I'm learning from you all the time
There's no need for explanation
Your examples do just fine

I'm getting an A in broken hearts
I got my degree in crying
You tell me it's not fair but I am so gone
Oh I loved you why'd you do me so wrong
And to think I sat there singing you a love song
I'd give you everything
But all I'd get from you is your runaround

You don't like these accusations
But I have seen with my own eyes
The compromising situation
Is you walk around in your disguise

And I aced the broken hearts
I got my degree in crying
You tell me it's not fair but I am so gone
Oh I loved you why'd you do me so wrong
And to think I sat there singing you a love song
Oh I'd give you everything
All I'd get from you is your runaround

Oh I aced the broken hearts
I got my degree in crying
You tell me it's not fair but I am so gone
Oh I loved you and why'd you do me so wrong
And to think I sat there singing you a love song
I'd give you everything
But all I'd get from you is your runaround

Oooooooh yeah.
Runaround
No more lovin' on the run
Runaround
No more, just a havin' fun
Is your runaround
Oooooh
Oooh yeah yeah yeah
Is your runaround
