Taylor Swift, Change

And its a sad picture, the final blow hits you Somebody else gets what you wanted again and You know its all the same, another time and place Repeating history and youre getting sick of it But I believe in whatever you do And III do anything to see it through

Because these things will change Do you feel it now? These walls that they put up to hold us back will fall down This revolution, the time will come For us to finally win We sing hallelujah, we sing hallelujah

So weve been outnumbered
Raided and now cornered
Its hard to fight when the fight aint fair
Were getting stronger now
Find things they never found
They might be bigger
But were faster and never scared
You can walk away, say we dont need this
But theres something in your eyes
Says we can beat this

Because these things will change Do you feel it now? These walls that they put up to hold us back will fall down This revolution, the time will come For us to finally win We sing hallelujah, we sing hallelujah

Tonight we stand, get off our knees Fight for what weve worked for all these years And the battle was long, its the fight of our lives But well stand up champions tonight

It was the night things changed Do you see it now? These walls that they put up to hold us back fell down Its a revolution, throw your hands up Cause we never gave in And we sang hallelujah, we sang hallelujah Hallelujah
