

Tayong, Cry

1st Verse

Is all this rhyming worth it?

The way I rhyme, the crime of the time

The song, the line, so I can shine

The way I rhyme is perfect

Too many fools try and cop my line

Try stop my grind, try flop dis rhyme

I try optimise myself, so I can stop dis crime and advise some help

Im a man thats emotional, all my fans; I gotta stay close to you,

Cos without you theres no me, its like without zoots theres no weed

So I choose to proceed, I buy snouts and draws till theres no me

But if I pass away today, I know you tried (you tried) to say

(chorus)

i never been the kind to ever let my feelings show , i always been strong and never loose myself co
