

Tea For Two, Way Of Life

(S. Weber/M. Schumpelt/J.O. Soerup)

11.45 PM

I knew from the start that she would never succeed... the first day I came, walking down the old streets unwilling faces still staring at me - what an odd sight!
she climbed up the stairs, trying to hide her sad face I felt obliged to help her and the clock strikes the quarter her answer was:

'Yes! I'll try once more, imagine those who stand alone I hurry up in order to catch their defeat since I got no replay, why don't you come in ?'
she complained without a course and I took a glance at the headlines her hands were trembling but then she told me the truth her ashes were scattered over the seas until this day I don't know, what really happened to me there is not much time left, I'm tired besides I don't want to see that play again and again there is no doubt - a decision will soon be made, maybe tonight I'm afraid to go my way but disease found its way to me ...

THINGS TO COME

I still hear your voice inside my head and I'm dying to know where you are my blood starts to get hot and cold when I remember the first time you looked into my eyes all the nights we spent together in all the dreams blew up my mind I had to hide my desire, now after all that lying, I watch it dying and now I've got the real thing here, don't ever leave me! yes, I've got the real thing here, no sign or warning You sang about the time to leave and somehow I thought it would never come as if by magic I was to exchange glances just standing and listening devoured with a jealousy passion, I've been longing for your love - a touch

but in the end I stood alone - why did you go?
and now I've got the right one here, things to come yes, I've got the real thing here, things are to come challenging ideas, lights are dimmed freeze, by surprise I face relentlessly I guess, cocktails ditch my fears, take a look, I will get this charming girl right now and I need to hold you in my lovin' arms, ooh I swear, from time to time insane

I hold my breath I'd like to taste your lips only one embrace boiled up my blood, ooh pushin' pushin' ...
I swear to keep the lust inside my flustered head - ooh I swear, from time to time too late

I changed my mind, I'd like to taste your flesh and sweat and I still hear your voice inside my head, I am dying to know where you

my blood is getting hot and cold when I remember the way you looked into my eyes

all the nights that I missed you all the dreams blew up my mind I had to hide my desires, now after all that lying, just watch me dying Ooh, I had the right one here, Things were to come, my love yes, I had the real thing here deep inside my heart

NIGHTMARE

do you feel the cold slowly creeping up your neck, can you hear the voices, the damned are crying to get back, don't you see the colours changing, you find them all around do you see the warnings, don't you see the writings on the wall just a dream or reality the night has come, where are stars in this cold dark sky try to look at me, try to fulfill the prophecy the moon shines bright tonight seems he's grinning right at me but who's to know if it's a dream or reality - is it a dream or reality

I'm on the run gonna take it all, never surrender myself to my enemies this is the night they came to sacrifice another lamb try to look at yourself! there's a treatment in store for you but who is to know if it's a dream or reality is it a dream or reality ?
