

Tear, Adelaid

Adelaid
Come with me
I will show you the world that you can't see
Adelaid
Come with me...

I will show you the love you think you know
I will show the friendship you have not
I'll explain you the meaning of the truth

I will show you the storm you've broken
'cause you have been so blind and so deaf
I will show you the person who you really are

Adelaid
Come with me
I will show you the world that you can't see
Adelaid
Come with me...

I will show you the way you've taken
I will show you the ways you've broken
I will show you the ways that everyday turn like your

I will show a place with two exits
I will ask you for one of this ways
And you'll choose if you save or wreck your life

Adelaid
Come with me
I will show you the world that you can't see
Adelaid
Come with me...

Adelaid
Come with me
I will show you the world that you can't see
Adelaid
Come with me...

I will show you the world that you can't see
I will show you the world you don't want to see
I will wake you up
once
and for all
