

Teddy Geiger, As We Older

As we get older
People grow colder
People get strange
Sometimes I find myself
Caught between the middle of things
If youll be my angel
Ill be your everything
Together well change
Ill stick to my reasons
And make sure youre okay
Connected and all right, tonight
Ill be the one to set you free
If youll always be my girl
Youre the one and only thing I need
Youll be the one to set me free
Cause youll always be my girl
Youre the one and only thing that I
I need
Nobody told her
People get older
Things become strange
As time passes by my window
I notice things never stay the same
Ill be your angel
Ill be your everything
Together well change
Ill stick to my reasons
Make sure youre okay
Connected and all right, tonight
And Ill be the one to set you free
If youll always be my girl
Youre the one and only thing I need (uh huh)
Youll be the one to set me free
Cause youll always be my girl
Youre the one and only thing I need (all right)
We can get older
But dont let me get colder
You dont have to worry
Cause the happy child will...
Ill be the one to set you free
If youll always be my girl
Youre the one and only thing that I need
Ill be the one to set you free
If youll always be my girl
Youre the one and only thing I need (that I)
Ill be the one thing that you need
If youll always be my girl
Youre the one and only thing that I
Need
